KRABBA

Gail,
You are one
of the sweetest,
nicest, cutest gals
I've met in a long time. Be as sweet as you are and you'll go far.
Love 'ya,
Cammie

Have fun this summer.
Wish I could go
Friday.

Janie

Best of luck,
Elizabeth H. Boyenton

Junior and Sophomore Class Officers

THE JUNIOR CLASS has finally taken the last step toward that long-awaited time when they become high school seniors. They entered in September, 1950, and settled down to a year of hard work and adjustments to high school life. Following a summer of fun, they returned to the now familiar halls of H. H. S. with added responsibilities. The Junior Class, guiding the sophomores, working to give the seniors the kind of prom they deserve, and taking a greater part in all school activities, was kept busy and happy. They can sincerely feel that their junior year was an enjoyable chapter in their life at Hampton High School.

THE SOPHOMORE CLASS, for many years to come, will recall the happy days of that year at Hampton High School. In September, 1951, they entered H. H. S., bewildered and seemingly lost, but it was only a short time until they became adjusted to their new surroundings. The football games will always be a lasting part of their memories. The Turkey Day Game climaxed by the Red and White Ball was enjoyed by everyone. Many sophomores showed special talents. Never to be forgotten was Bill Jones' interpretation of Jerry Lewis and Johnny Morgan's imitation of Phil Harris. Now they look forward to their next year as juniors, hoping it to be as wonderful as their sophomore year at Hampton High School.

FOOTBALL

The sportswriters laughed at the green boys from Hampton and noted how the mighty had fallen, but there was a writing in the sky that night over the hills of Lynchburg that told of things to come. The Crabbers went on to rise from the ranks of the lost with this enviable record of only one loss during the entire season.

Aerial View of City of Hampton

More than three hundred and forty years have passed since the inevitable and initiative steps were first taken in 1610 to establish Hampton. Hampton has endured many strenuous years and has striven continually to remain a progressive city. The rich history of Hampton is both great and colorful. Its past has been illustrious. It has indeed played an eminent roll in the development of the lower peninsula of Virginia. Although there has been much progress made since the incorporation of Hampton in 1887, still there is much work left for the future if Hampton is to continue on the ever-winding road of progress. The strength of Hampton must not falter. Its progress must not cease. The City of Hampton must endure.

CITY OF HAMPTON

"Oldest Continuous English-speaking Settlement in America"

INFORMATION CONCERNING ELIZABETH CITY COUNTY AND ITS GOVERNMENT

BRIEF HISTORY OF COUNTY: Although the first white people to put foot on Elizabeth City County soil was in 1607, the area was not settled until July, 1610, and has since been continuously populated. Elizabeth City County was formed in 1634 with a Sheriff as administrator and named for Queen Elizabeth I of England. The City of Hampton separated from Elizabeth City County on January 1, 1940. On March 9, 1862, in the waters of Hampton Roads the famous battle between the vessels, the "Merrimac" and Monitor," was fought. It was on the night of August 7, 1862, that Confederate General Magruder ordered the old Dominion Dragoons to burn the city of Hampton in order to slow advance of Federal forces.

AREA: With an area of 56 square miles, the County is next to the smallest in the State.

FORM OF GOVERNMENT: In 1942 the County adopted the COUNTY BOARD FORM of government, one of the three improved optional forms of county government provided by Acts of the General Assembly. The adoption of this form of government was by popular vote of the people. It establishes a chief administrative office filled by a County Executive who is responsible to the Board of Supervisors for the proper administration of all departments and functions of the government except those of the elective or constitutional offices.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS: This is the governing body. It establishes policy for the administration of the various departments. The three members are elected for four-year terms.

COMMISSIONER OF REVENUE: Elected for a four-year term. He is re-responsible for the assessment of real and personal properties. State income tax returns are filed in this office, and business licenses issued.

TREASURER: Elected for a four-year term. He is responsible for collection, disbursement, and custodianship of all county funds. Dog licenses are issued from this office.

CLERK: Records all deeds, plats, mortgages, contracts, wills, marriage licenses, and papers of legal nature. He issues marriage license. The clerk also serves as Clerk of the Circuit Court and Clerk of the Board of Supervisors.

ROADS: All public roads in the county are built and maintained by the Virginia Department of Highways.

WATER SERVICE: Domestic water service is provided by the Newport News Water Works Commission.

are these "the best years of your life"?

Parents often say they are, but there can be plenty of wonderful good times ahead for you.

Especially if you get a good job, doing interesting, important work with the kind of people you love to work with. Many high school girls find exactly that at the telephone company, after graduation.

So when you finish school, stop in and see us. You'll probably find a job you'll really enjoy at good pay with regular raises.
